CLASSIC HOTEL

The luxurious large scale hotels which appeared during the late 19th and earlry 20th centuries all over the world boast classic architectural design and impressive hand crafted interiors. These "Grand Hotel" ,the precursors of the modern hotel, were built by the finest craftsmen with no expense spared. No modern hotel can approach the quality of finish and detail typical in these luxurious facilities, This volume introduces, for the first time, details of several famous classic hotels which are nearly impossible to see first hand.

RESORT HOTEL

Against the background of explosive growth in world-wide vacation tourism, the 1980's saw the emergence of new and unusual resort hotels. Focussing on the Giant Super Luxury resorts of America, Hawaii, Australia, and Mexico, this volume introduces the "on land ocean cruise" and other new concept in resort hotels. At a time when we look forward to a new era of comprehensive resorts, this volume is a visual source book for the development of new resort ideas.
